We are not a gym. We are a coaching system.

Restart Fitness PH is an online coaching brand built on The Restart Fitness System — a structured, repeatable process that delivers real results through training, nutrition, habits, and accountability.

The System

Not a personality brand. A repeatable coaching process that works even when motivation doesn't.

High-Care

Weekly check-ins. Video feedback. Real nutrition guidance. Accountability that most coaches don't provide.

Brand Clarity

A specific, premium voice and visual standard that builds trust in a market full of generic fitness content.

Coach Jap — Japhet Felipe

Founder, Restart Fitness PH • Head Coach, Urban Strong Fitness

Fitness coach, systems builder, and brand architect behind The Restart Fitness System.

Philippines-based • Coaching online clients and in-person at Urban Strong Fitness.

Most people don't lack effort. They lack structure.

The fitness market has more content than ever. Free workouts. Apps. YouTube. Instagram programs. And yet most people still struggle to make consistent progress. The problem isn't access to information. The problem is the absence of a system — and someone to hold them to it.

They've tried gyms

Paid for access. Got equipment.
Got no coaching.

They've tried apps

Downloaded the plan.
No one corrected their form.

They've tried YouTube

Found free workouts.
Lost the path after week two.

They've tried motivation

Started strong. Life happened.
No accountability to reset.

They've tried generic coaches

Got a PDF program.
Got no feedback. No follow-through.

They've tried doing it alone

Good intentions.
No structure that survives reality.

What people cannot find easily is a structured, human-led coaching system that builds real consistency, corrects mistakes, and stays with them.

The Restart Fitness System

A repeatable coaching process built on four pillars — and a weekly loop that keeps every client on track through clarity, structure, coaching, and accountability.

Training

Structured programming, movement quality, and progression that makes sense for real life.

Nutrition

Practical, real-food guidance. No extreme diets. No calorie obsession.

Habits

Simple, repeatable behavior targets that build consistency without willpower.

Accountability

Weekly check-ins, video feedback, standards, and real adjustments from a coach.

THE FOUR-STEP PROCESS

01

Clarity

Understand goal, baseline, schedule, and starting point.

02

Structure

Build training, nutrition, habit, and check-in plan.

03

Coaching

Guide execution, correct mistakes, teach the plan.

04

Accountability

Review, adjust, reinforce, and repeat.

Every client follows the same weekly loop.

The loop is not a concept. It is the product. Every active client moves through this sequence every week — no exceptions, no guessing.

- 01 Follow the assigned training plan
- 02 Complete nutrition and habit actions
- 03 Submit training videos when required
- 04 Complete the weekly check-in
- 05 Coach reviews progress
- 06 Coach gives feedback and adjustments
- 07 Client follows next week's action plan

The Standard

High-care. High-standard.
Responsive and structured.
Real feedback, not automated replies.
Adjustments based on what actually happened that week.

Clients are not left to guess.
They are coached through it.

We do not sell workouts.

We sell a system that works when motivation does not.

The goal is not just results. The goal is results you can keep.

What Restart Fitness PH clients achieve:

● Consistency

Clients build weekly training habits that survive bad weeks, busy schedules, and life.

● Measurable Progress

Weight, strength, body composition, and energy tracked and adjusted every week.

● Real Nutrition

Practical food choices that fit real Philippine life — no extreme cuts, no crash dieting.

● Long-Term Results

Clients leave the program with skills, habits, and a system they can maintain independently.

Client Proof Library

Results documented across: weight loss, strength gain, body composition improvement, habit consistency, improved energy and sleep, sustainable nutrition behavior, and long-term adherence.

Urban Strong Fitness serves as the local in-person proof engine — real clients, real results, real documentation.

"Health is non-negotiable."

We train for function, longevity, and quality of life — not just aesthetics.

The Restart Fitness System is built to produce results that compound over time.

One system. Five entry points.

Every offer runs on The Restart Fitness System. Clients choose the level of support, duration, and coaching depth that fits their goal and starting point.
